Adam Cramond Martin
(UGA History A.B., '16)

Amanda and Greg Gregory Award for Teaching

Presented to: Steve Soper

Nominated by: Undergraduate students in history.

Steve Soper's courses have been attracting students from all majors. From introducing students to digital humanities by analyzing prison data, to podcasting at the Special Collections Libraries, Soper finds ways to integrate media and current technology into historical research for undergraduates.

Adam Cramond Martin Student Travel Award

Student: Ellie McQuaig

Faculty sponsor: Brigitte Rossbacher

Presented by: Akela Reason

Ellie will attend the 2019 Study Abroad program in Freiburg, Germany. "After I graduate, I want to go to graduate school, eventually getting my PhD in history. German and European history are my main areas of interest, so it's incredibly important to increase my proficiency in the language and experience the culture first hand."

Katie Thomson, UGA History '18 (received the Sally & Oran Woodall biannual study abroad award for in 2018)

I hope you are well! I had an amazing time in Australia and NZ learning about Aboriginal and Maori history, the evolution of sustainability measures and the history of the natural environment! I am so grateful to have received a history department scholarship that allowed me to pursue these studies abroad! I have attached some photos, thanks again!

Hiking Aoraki/Mt. Cook, it's called this to honor both the traditional Maori name and the name given by European explorers.

We [also]visited Carnarvon Gorge in Australia, where we saw Aboriginal cave paintings representing the sacredness of the Gorge, religious dreaming stories involving the Rainbow Serpent and the emu as well as fertility rituals.

Thank you, and please let the donors know how grateful I am for the experience of a lifetime!

Best,

Katie Thomson
